This month we begin a new feature which will focus on our Gems of the Month and Close-ups. We will go into greater detail about Gems of the Month selections and Close-up picks, including some of the reasons we felt these particular releases were worthy of being set apart from all the other items offered in this month's catalog.

• Gems of the Month •

These are our picks for this month's potential best-sellers.

THE TERMINATOR #1 should be another blockbuster series from Dark Horse Comics. This company has been on an impressive roll lately and THE TERMINATOR will keep the interest level high. The PREDATOR series was hugely successful and featured Chris Warner artwork. Now we have another four issue licensed series with art by Warner that (again) ties into a hit movie starring Arnold Schwarzenegger! This is a series you can't go wrong with. THE TERMINATOR will be another winner!

Punisher hardcovers have all been best-sellers. Marvel's upcoming release of the PUNISHER HARDCOVER GRAPHIC NOVEL: KINGDOM GONE will follow the pattern. This new book will be written by Chuck (MOON KNIGHT) Dixon (acknowledged as one of the best action/adventure "tough guy" writers currently working in comics), with impressive artwork by Jorge Zaffino (artist of the popular PUNISHER: ASSASSIN'S GUILD Graphic Novel).

DETECTIVE COMICS #622 is special for several reasons. This issue is the first of a three part storyline, "The Demon Within", by guest-writer John (SUICIDE SQUAD, GRIMJACK) Ostrander. Batman discovers there is a comic book about his adventures and his investigations lead to a murder mystery. The comic-within-a-comic portions of this storyline are drawn by Flint (GRIMJACK) Henry. The cover of DETECTIVE COMICS #622 is by Golden Age Batman artist Dick Sprang. This issue kicks off a very unusual and interesting Batman story.

Eclipse has gone all out to put together an exciting and unique Prestige Format comic series. M is a four issue series, with adaptation and mood-invoking artwork by Jon J Muth, based on the film starring Peter Lorre (some think his best performance). The plot of this series (the search for a child murderer) should appeal to many readers who would enjoy a gritty, nerve-jangling suspense story. M #1 includes a flexi-disc by Muth and a string quartet playing "In the Hall of the Mountain King", which is the song the murderer whistles.

• Close-Ups •

These releases will appeal to a hard-core group of fans or may just deserve more recognition than they might otherwise get.

TANDRA #10, written and illustrated by Hanther (from Hanthercraft), is a magazine sized, black and white comic that has been running irregularly since 1973. This title features exceptionally nice artwork and a plotline involving pirates, warriors, wizards, creatures of the night, and last (but certainly not least!) beautiful women.

KRAZY AND IGNATZ VOLUME 7: A KATNIP KANTATA IN THE KEY OF K (from Eclipse) features 16 color pages, 10 of them never having seen print anywhere but in the New York Journal (9 years before the Krazy Sunday page went permanently to color). The discovery of these pages (and the upcoming volume reprinting them) should be very exciting to fans of Krazy and Ignatz.

Sword in Stone Productions has the rights to reprint ACG titles. One in particular, HERBIE, was a cult favorite in the '60s. This title, by Trina Robbins, followed the humorous adventures of a time-travelling fat "fury" and will undoubtedly bring back fond memories to his fans.

DOOM PATROL #37 (from DC) kicks off a new storyline as the title now carries a "suggested for mature readers only" label. This issue is a good starting point for new readers. The cover will be painted by popular artist Simon Bisley (who will be doing the upcoming LOBO mini-series).

Have a great month and let us know what you think of this column.

COMING ITEMS

For New Publications Scheduled to Ship in August 1990

COMICS

Welcome to this issue of PREVIEWS! This is a "deluxe" advance catalog for comic collectors featuring previews of comics and specialty items -- usually available only to your retailer! Included are many different items and coming comics as well as a detachable order form. If your store has a subscription service, this is the perfect way for you to update your monthly wants, and to let them know if you wish to purchase any special items not covered by your subscription list. Simply write in the number of copies you'd like (when ordering t-shirts please also indicate the size desired) and return the order form to your store before the deadline printed on the cover. Your retailer can then take into consideration your requests when placing their orders with distributors. Plus, you get the satisfaction of knowing, in advance, what new and exciting titles and stories will be available!

Here's an explanation of some terms and phrases used in PREVIEWS:

"GEM of the Month": These are the "Creme de la Creme", "Top Guns", the "A #1 Best-Bet Items" of the month.

"SPOTLIGHT ON": These items are also of special interest to collectors.

"CLOSE UP": These items are somewhat out of the mainstream, geared toward collectors who are searching for something different and non-traditional.

"Please Inquire": This refers to certain items that might vary in price or have limited availability. In the case of limited edition books, portfolios, and button sets, it's best to let your retailer know early that you want these items, so they can place an order for you.

OFFERED AGAIN: Simply stated, these are items that have been offered before, been released to comic stores, and are "Offered Again" for those who may have missed them the first time around.

Still Available: These are items that have come out and are offered again for sale. These items may be, however, in short supply.

RESOLICITION: All orders taken for these items have been cancelled (usually due to delayed production), new orders must be placed.

That's all there is to it! We hope PREVIEWS helps you, the fan, make better decisions on new titles, and helps make collecting comics much more fulfilling. See you next month!

This company's line consists of new and reprint material, including classic stories from the Charlton and ACG archives, as well as having an exclusive licence to reproduce the classic paintings of Frank Frazetta as comic covers! This month sees the debut of a real cult favorite, Herbie, and also two series with Frazetta covers.

ADVENTURE INTO THE UNKNOWN #1

From the archives of ACG comes this revival of the classic SF/horror series, with stories by Frazetta, Williamson, Ditko, Kenneth Landau, Mike Zeck, and more. Frazetta cover!

b&w, 48pg$2.50

HOT AND COLD HEROES #1

This new anthology title will feature new and old heroes revamped (or reprinted) for the '90s. This issue starts off with "Hellsing", created by Mike Zeck. This is a futuristic tale of a direct descendant of Dr. Van Helsing, who hunts the evil Count Dracula in the 21st century. The Count is no longer a creature of the night, however, but a creature of the boardroom, using his wealth to manipulate a vast empire which sole purpose of existence is to make Dracula human once again! Plus, John Byrne's Rog 2000, a Golden Age Yellowjacket story from 1945, and Tom Sutton's The Knight. Cover by Geoff Isherwood.

FISH POLICE #25

by Steve Moncuse

This issue features Part 1 of the incredible conclusion of one of the most imaginative independent series ever! With Lord (formerly Inspector) Gill in charge of everything, all the world's problems have been solved overnight. Life, it seems, has become downright perfect—perfectly boring that is! But trouble brews in Utopia—at the very top! Lord Gill has begun to sound and act a lot like his old nemesis Hook—who hasn't been seen since he escaped from his jail cell back in issue #21! The story—and series—concludes two weeks after this issue ships, in Fish Police #26!

b&w$2.25

FISH POLICE #26

by Steve Moncuse

This issue concludes the Fish Police series, with creator Steve Moncuse tying everything together and supplying what so many series lack these days—an ending that is both satisfying and final! Harlan Ellison provides an afterword for the final chapter of the series.

VOX #7

by A. Harris & A. McClellan

In the final issue of the series, Vox finds himself facing a most difficult decision: betray the human race...or plunge it into interplanetary war! With the Human Council demanding he follow their orders—even as he attempts to hold back the forces of the invading Bordoks and Zetaceans—Vox is in a tight spot. One slip and he could be responsible for triggering a war that could spell the end of human civilization!

THE CRYPT #1

by Shanklin, Krolczyk, Hempel, Willis, & Wheatley

It was just a harmless role-playing game—or so they thought. But with one unlucky role of the dice, they were suddenly, and violently, thrust into an alternate reality—a mystical realm populated with demons and monsters...and dominated by Death! This comic was originally published in 1987 by Aaaargh! Associated Artists and is a complete story unto itself. Autographed copies will be intermixed within this batch of uncirculated copies.

I WANNA BE YOUR DOG #1

by Ho Che Anderson

The star of this four issue mini-series is 20-year old Mary-Elizabeth Greenberg—black and Jewish, sexually liberated, with a small daughter and an extensive history of drug abuse. She has just recovered from a harsh relationship with Xal Volstock—a psychosexual pervert and petty thief who forced her into a submissive role—and has just begun to date again. But, to her shock, she finds herself slipping back into the dominant/submissive relationship she held before—only now she is taking the dominant role! And then Xal Volstock returns. A contemporary erotic thriller.

THE EROTIC WORLDS OF FRANK THORNE #1

This new five issue limited series features new and previously published material by Ghita creator, Frank Thorne. Speaking of Ghita, this premier issue features a new, never-before-reprinted Ghita story. This issue also features a special photo section of a model posing as Ghita in full costume, as well as two different cover designs. The "sexy" cover features Ghita and her sword, while the "violent" cover features Ghita and a bevy of battling beauties bashing a battalion of bested barbarians. Both covers feature nudity, so each will feature a special black and red "over-cover" depicting only a close-up of Ghita, with the rest of the image in silhouette.

KING'S IN-DISGUISE

KINGS IN DISGUISE COLLECTION by Vance & Burr

Winner of two Eisner Awards and one Harvey in 1989, and nominated for another Harvey this year, Kings in Disguise has been one of the most honored series ever produced by KSP. Now, this new edition collects the entire six issue series into one volume. The story follows a young boy named Freddie Bloch, who travels across America during the Great Depression, in search of his missing father. Along the way he meets people who wish to harm him, and a few who protect him, gets mixed up in a labor riot, becomes politically radicalized, and ends up caring for the man who once stood up for him. This edition is available in softcover and signed and numbered hardcover editions.

OWLHOOTS #1

by Vance & Garcia

James Vance, creator of Kings in Disguise, returns to KSP with this new limited series concerning a band of old Western heroes attempting to make a movie about their lives. They must not only confront the "Modern Age" (circa 1914) and the people who run it, but also try to resolve conflicts among themselves. The series will last from 5 to 6 issues and will be printed in b&w, with a brown, or sepia tone, to more readily suggest its Western motif. Quarterly.

by Rick Veitch

This unflinching new limited series takes an in-depth look at the age-old "Kid Sidekick" phenomena that arose out of the Golden Age of Comics, and still somehow survives today. The series will introduce a number of new superhero characters, vaguely familiar, garbed in the same sort of masks and costumes as their contemporaries, but with not so subtle differences in the way they act—both in the public eye and in private! The series details the effects of vigilante activity on both the community, and the people behind the masks, and will shatter any preconceptions you may have had regarding super-heroes! Bi-monthly.

THE BOOK OF THE SUBGENIUS

Will the world fall to hideous space aliens in 1998? Will every man, woman, and child attain the optimum level of "Slack"? Will the "Men in Black", "Big Brother", and the "Normals" pave the way for our downfall? The immortal words of J. R. "Bob" Dobbs point the way to power, riches, and the attainment of "Slack" in this humorous and often puzzling "bible" of the cause. The volume is filled with the teachings of "Bob" and page after page of mind-numbing art and collage (some by Robert Williams and Paul Mavrides). THE SURVIVOR

by Paul Gillon

In the near future, a terrible disaster wipes out almost every living thing on Earth—except for Aude Aubespy, a lone woman in Paris. The city is hers for the taking—food, furs, jewelry—but what's the point? Her enemies are boredom and loneliness; except for the robot servants who blindly follow their programming, there is no one else! In desperation, she finds herself turning to a particular robot named Ulysses for "companionship". Then, one day a miracle occurs—a man literally shows up on her doorstep! It looks like Aude's days of loneliness are ended—but even machines can get jealous! Part one in a 3-volume series.

THE TOWERS OF BOIS-MAURY #3: GERMAIN

by Hermann

Catalan assumes the publishing rights to Hermann's critically acclaimed series. Germain, a dispossessed peasant, his withered left hand burned in punishment for killing a rapacious knight, is unable to carry on his trade as a stonemason and is forced to join a band of brigands posing as jugglers and musicians. The exploits of this unfortunate soul are paralleled by those of Sir Aymar, the deprived heir to the fabulous Towers of Bois-Maury. Each meets a woman battered by experience: one has retreated into a world of her own, the other disfigures her tormentor in a gruesome finale.

THE COMIC BOOK MAKERS

by Joe Simon with Jim Simon

Millions of readers have grown up with comic books and have delighted in the antics and adventures of their favorite characters, but few know the real inside stories of the people who created what has become today's multi-million dollar industry.

The Comic Book Makers is Joe Simon's first-hand, eye witness account of the people and time that was the Golden Age, from the 1930s through the early '60s. Joe relates personal accounts of his experiences as a comic book writer, artist, and publisher, and provides revealing and entertaining stories of growing up "before comics", the birth of the industry, the early back-room publishing offices, collaborations (and feuds) among writer and artist and publisher, and the creators—Jack Kirby, Siegel & Shuster, Al Harvey, Lou Fine, Mort Meskin, Creig Flessel, Bill Gaines, Al Capp, Ham Fisher, and Walt Kelly.

It is a controversial, revealing, fun story that doesn't pull any punches—and the artwork, much of it never before published, is invaluable!

HANK KETCHAM, THE MERCHANT OF DENNIS

by Hank Ketcham

Dennis the Menace was "born" in the autumn of 1950, but he was already (and always will be) "five-and-a-half" years old. Every day now for nearly 40 years, Hank Ketcham has presented the hilarious misadventures of Dennis Mitchell in more than a thousand newspapers worldwide. This is his biography, which begins on that fateful day when Ketcham's wife proclaimed that their son Dennis was Menace—the seed of an idea that Ketcham would eventually sell to a newspaper syndicate. This volume also traces the life and career of Dennis' creator, Hank Ketcham, from his early days copying the funny papers, to today. Includes character studies, set designs, and a selection of the artist's favorite strips from its long run. 250 b&w illustrations. (Abbeville)

GUNDAM MOBILE SUIT VOL 1: AWAKENING

translated by Frederik L. Schodt

This extraordinary SF saga created by Yoshiyuki Tomino began as an animated TV series in Japan in 1979—and grew into a veritable industry of books, films, toys, models, manga, and related items. But most importantly, Tomino's Gundam series spawned the wave of "robot fever" which swept across both Japan and the U.S.

In this first volume, the tyrannical Zavi Dynasty plans to use the civil war between Earth's Federation and its colonies to further Zavi ends. Amuro Rey, a young Federation cadet, is about to meet his first challenge as a Gundam test pilot—facing an enemy in battle who is more vital to his very existence than anyone in all of the galaxies! SHOWBIZ GAME

You are a top theatrical agent. You must predict the demand for different types of acts and sign performers to contracts of varying length to fill that demand. A top singer may be in demand now, but if you sign that star to a five year contract and no one can remember his name after a year—you'll eat that contract! Each turn, players forecast what talent will be needed in the next year, and then vie for the stars as they bid amongst themselves to sign the available talent. The efficiency with which each player signs their stars, and forecasts the future demand, will determine who gets rich—and who goes broke. But after all, that's Show Biz! (#6410)

RIFTS ROLE-PLAYING GAME

by Kevin Siembieda

Earth has been torn apart and reshaped by cosmic forces! It is as alien as some distant planet—yet strangely familiar. Humankind has risen from the ashes of Armageddon to reclaim their planet—only this time, there are other creatures who claim it as well!

Rifts presents a universal system wherein the genres of science fiction, fantasy, post-holocaust, horror, and adventure mix into one setting. It is a world where mutant animals and cybernetic assassins may fight side-by-side (or against) medieval warriors and arcane beings! And because this setting is of a "universal" nature, it is compatible with all of Palladium's role-playing series, including TMNT and Robotech!

The massive Rifts rulebook features over 20 new character classes, new magic and "technomagic", introductory adventures, new monsters and supernatural creatures, a history and over-view of Earth pre and post-holocaust, full-color artwork, and much more!

VIDEOS

BOOKS NIPPAN/US RENDITIONS

The following pair of videos are the first in a series of OVA's (Original Video Animation) from Japan. These are not poorly-dubbed, watered-down versions of the Japanese cartoons, but expertly subtitled, original editions! No goofy voices, no editing of the "good parts"—just good Japanese animation! These videos are unrated, and contain material that would be considered as "mature themes" (a possible rating of "PG-13").

GUNBUSTER VOL 1

From the original creator of Macross, Haruhiko Mikimoto, comes this all-new original anime series! Gunbuster tells the story of a beautiful young mecha pilot trainee, Noriko Takaya. As the daughter of a legendary space captain who was killed in battle, she struggles to continue her family's legacy by becoming a member of the Earth Space Force and joining in the war to defend Earth against an alien invasion. Running time is 55 minutes.

CONAN CLASSICS PORTFOLIO SERIES

Set Five - Artwork by Nestor Redondo

In our on-going series of portfolios that showcase the full color cover paintings featured in Marvel's Savage Sword of Conan, our fifth is one of our finest!

Printed on 8pt coated stock, laser-separated at a super-fine 200 dots per inch, and color-corrected to match the artist's originals, then limited to a run of only 2000 numbered sets, each Conan Color Classic is a collector's dream. A must for enthusiasts of Conan, fantasy art or both!

CONAN COLOR CLASSICS SET FIVE - $20.00

Six full color 11X14 plates in a clear plastic slipcase.

FLEETWAY/QUALITY T-SHIRT - DESIGN 14

JUDGE DEATH

Oh sure he's nasty, and mean-tempered, and very, very lethal, but deep-down he's just a misunderstood demon from another dimension! Now a full-color T-shirt by Rich Larson. In small, medium, large, and x-large. $10.95

CONAN

By Barry Windsor-Smith

A full color shirt featuring the barbaric one, as seen by one of his most famous illustrators. Available in small, medium, large, and extra-large.

Design S6 - $10.95

BACKLIST TO THE FUTURE

a second look at first-quality merchandise

Swords of the Huntress

Seven black and white visions of deadly beauty - of women born and bred to battle! Illustrated by Ron Rudat in loving detail. 7 b&w 11x14 plates in a clear plastic slipcase. $10.00
